

Did You Know 3 Million Children in the United States Today Have Food Allergies?

That's One In 17 Children Under the Age of 3*

Food allergies are on the rise, affecting millions of children every day, everywhere. Protect Allergic Kids' (PAK) free support group offers help and hope. PAK will help you learn more about food allergies, anaphylaxis and allergic diseases including Eosinophilic disorders and Celiacs. Explore the web site (www.protectallergickids.org) or attend monthly support group meetings on how better to manage life with food allergies. The PAK network is dedicated to raising awareness through education and generating funds to find a cure. Join us to learn more and help keep children everywhere safe.
